SURVIVOR CAMP: MMS ISLAND

Ready to test your Survivor skills on MMS Island? Once you've landed on the beach, we'll divide into tribes, where you'll get a buff, build a shelter, paint your tribe flag, and size up the competition! Each day, tribes will be challenged by group obstacle courses and life-size puzzles. You'll have a chance to search for the hidden Immunity Idol, see if you can survive a gross eating challenge, and try to help keep your team safe from losing points at Tribal Council. We'll play in the sand and dip in the "ocean" to stay cool in the afternoons, and the tribe with the most points at the end of the week will win the honor of being first in line at the big MMS Island buffet blowout on Friday! Come see if you have what it takes to outlast all the rest on MMS Island!

Can you build an unsinkable boat? How long of a maze can you build with 100 Legos and how quickly can your marble get through it? Join us to discover the wonders of science through building, creating, and DOING! If you are extreme, you won't want to miss S.T.E.A.M!
